All printers make typographical errors, some more, some less. Some of these errors are susceptible of a construction that makes them funny. This paper was the fruit-saiad, cake and choco victim of one of that kind recently. The number of people who called our attention to it made a very flattering testimon ial to the fact that the paper is very carefully read, and the further deduction to be made from this testimonial is that it pays to advertise.

TO BE, OR NUI

To be, or not to be. That's the question on the new county proposition.

Here is what the telegraphic news in the Albuquerque Journal says about it:

A resolution reciting that the house is far behind in its work and providing that no bills creating new counties or changing existing county lines be considered during the present session, brought Mr. Manzanares to his feet in a hurry with a motion to table. The advocates of new counties were in a big majority and the resolution was laid on the table.

And here is what the New Mexican says about it:

House Joint Resolution No. 15, to prevent the consideration of county division bills at this session, was carried by vica-voce vote, after a parlimentary wran
